

IN PARIS DURING FIAC

The 40th edition of FIAC is an opportunity to discover an exceptional artistic programme in Paris and in France.

This year, many contemporary artists are showcased.

For the first time since it reopened, the Palais de Tokyo is giving carte blanche to a single artist, Philippe Parreno, who invests the full 22 000m² of the institution. After his success at Documenta, the Centre Pompidou presents the first Pierre Huyghe retrospective and retraces the work of Roy Lichtenstein. The artists Dewar & Gicquel, winners of the 2012 Marcel Duchamp Prize are featured in the Espace 315. The Musée d'Art moderne de la Ville de Paris stages the first Parisian exhibition of Chinese artist Zeng Fanzhi. Following its ambitious solo presentation in 2005, the Fondation Cartier pour l'art contemporain features a new Ron Mueck exhibition. Together with six recent works, it unveils three new sculptures especially created for the exhibition. At the MAC/VAL, Renaud Auguste-Dormeuil presents «INCLUDE ME OUT». The Jeu de Paume hosts an exhibition of Erwin Blumenfeld, a major photographer of the 20th century, and that of photographer Natacha Nisic.

Major historic venues honour contemporary creation.

Italian artist Giuseppe Penone is the guest of the Château de Versailles. His monumental sculptures are presented along la Grande Perspective and in the Bosquet de l'Étoile. Under the Louvre Pyramid, Loris Gréaud has produced a huge modular structure in black stone: the culmination of his previous works.

Modern artists are celebrated this year.

The Centre Pompidou presents “Modernités plurielles”, a new display of its collections. The Grand Palais hosts the first retrospective dedicated to Felix Vallotton by a national museum for nearly half a century, from what promises to be an entirely new angle. The exhibition dedicated to Georges Braque traces all of the periods of his œuvre, from Fauvism to his stunning “grands ateliers” and bird series. Les Arts Décoratifs pays tribute to Jean Dubuffet, by celebrating the 40th anniversary of Coucou Bazar, a ‘live’ painting that was the culmination of the Hourloupe cycle, devised by the artist in 1970. At the Musée d'Art moderne de la Ville de Paris, Serge Poliakoff is the focus of a new retrospective revealing the artist as a major figure of the Parisian arts scene in the 1950s and the 1960s. The Orangerie Museum presents the work of the legendary Mexican couple, Diego Rivera and Frida Khalo.

Once again this year, many private collections are on view.

At the Conciergerie, exceptional works from the Pinault collection deal with the theme of confinement in this historic site. la maison rouge – Fondation Antoine de Galbert presents the David Walsh’s collection based in Tasmania, while the Passage de Retz hosts the first exhibition the collection of Philippe Cohen.

In France, Gunnar B. Kvaran is the curator of the 12th Biennale de Lyon, inaugurated in September. The Centre Pompidou-Metz presents the first monographic exhibition of Hans Richter’s work in France. The Tripostal in Lille celebrates the 25th anniversary of Galerie Perrotin. For FRAC’s 30th anniversary, the Abattoirs in Toulouse host 23 artists projects reunited in the exhibition « les Pléiades ».
